A Clear Grasp of the Conditions in the State Across the River Shown by Him.

JAMES A. MOUNT STEADFASTLY RE-FUSED SAME REQUEST.

The Goebelites Brought Every Pressure to Bear-What Ex-Governor W. S. Taylor Has to Say.

Governor Durbin last night gave out his State of Indiana. The indictment presented decision denying the requisitions of Gov. Beckham, of Kentucky, for the return to that State of ex-Governor William S. Taylor and ex-Secretary of State Charles S. Finley, Governor Durbin's decision was officially the second rebuff the Goebel Democrats of Kentucky have received from Indiana chief executives in their spectacular efforts to get Messrs. Taylor and Finley in their clutches, but in reality it was the third time they have been folled.

In the summer of 1899 Governor Mount was visited by a Kentucky delegation composed of Justus Goebel, Lawyer "Tom" Campbell and Sheriff Suter, of Frankfort, bearing the first requisition ever issued for Taylor and Finley. The late Governor was urged in Intensely dramatic speeches by both Goebel and Campbell to grant the requisitions, but declined unhesitatingly and firmly to do so. Governor Mount's declination was conveyed to Governor Beckham in an official communication of considerable length in which was given a masterly review of the chaotic condition of Kentucky law and politics, accompanied by a ringing declaration that never until order came from that chaos and human life was more safe in Kentucky than at that period | beth Duer Bronson, daughter of the late should Messrs. Durbin agreed to read the Powers evidence, which was contained in five large volumes, and postpone his decision in the requisition matter until he had finished his new task.

The general belief at the time, as stated in the Journal, was that Governor Durbin had made up his mind to refuse the requisitions. Since he has received further information by reading the Powers testimony without learning anything to cause him to FORMER GOVERNOR'S ATTITUDE of last night will act as a quietus on further attempts to get Messrs. Taylor and Finley back to Kentucky.

Governor Durbin's Letter.

Governor Durbin's announcement of the decision in the requisition matter was in the nature of a communication to Governor Beckham, of Kentucky, which reads as

For the second time requisitions have been presented to the Governor of this commonwealth, issued by your authority, asking for the extradition of William S. Taylor and Charles Finley, alleged fugitives from justice from the State of Kentucky, and at this time residing in the charges these men with being accessories before the fact to the willful murder of William Goebel. I respectfully decline to honor the requisitions The reasons given for a similar action on the part of my predecessor, the lamented ex-Governor Mount, still obtain in a pertinent manner as a basis for this refusal, reinforced, as they are, by events that have occurred since that time, which only tend o establish the conviction to those who believe in equal and exact justice under the law to all men that the time has not yet arrived within the environments of this prosecution whereby an unprejudiced and onpartisan hearing of a trial could be had. I choose to make use of the right and the duty as the executive of the commonwealth (CONTINUED ON PAGE 9, COL. 1.)

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. WASHINGTON, Nov. 2 .- Nicaragua has denounced the treaty of 1867 which gave to the United States the right to construct an interoceanic canal across the territory of that country. Notice to this effect was received by the State Department on Oct. 24, but the public was informed of it only to-day. One year from that date the treaty will expire, and Nicaragua, by giving this notice, makes it known that she the navy may direct; to do extra police does not wish to continue the instrument duty during that time; to lose all pay ex- in force.
